General Instructions

This form must also be used by an antenna structure tenant licensee who is required to register the antenna structure because the owner is subject to the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988.

Who Must File This Form and When

All existing license holders and antenna structure owners must file FCC Form 606. The form should be filed as soon as possible. It must be submitted before filing any subsequent applications associated with the existing license or antenna structure registration. Additionally, this form must be submitted prior to applying for a Wireless Telecommunications license or an antenna structure registration for the first time.

Information Current and Complete

Information filed with the FCC must be kept current and complete. The licensee/antenna structure owner must notify the FCC regarding any substantial and significant changes in the information furnished in the application(s). See Section 1.65 of the Commission’s rules.

Instructions for Main Form

Licensee/Antenna Structure Owner Information

Item 1a Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) of the licensee/antenna structure owner. For individuals, enter the 9 digit Social Security Number. For all other filers, enter the 9 digit Employer Identification Number. This data is required to comply with the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. This information will not be made available for public inspection.

Item 1b This item is optional for entities and not applicable to individuals. A Sub-Group Identification Number (SGIN) is required in instances where an entity does not have a unique TIN because it is a sub-group or department of the entity identified by the TIN (e.g., a governmental entity or academic institution) and therefore shares the TIN with other subgroups or departments of the same entity. The SGIN allows each sub-group to track the licenses/registrations it holds. If an SGIN is used, enter any combination of three numbers or letters. The SGIN is not needed for entities that have a unique TIN that is not used by any other entity. The sub-group identification number is self-assigned and limited to three characters.
Items 2-11 These items identify the person or entity that is registering the TIN and call signs/registration numbers. Items 2-9 must be completed; Items 10 and 11 (FAX and E-Mail) are optional. Complete either Item 2 (Name) or Item 3 (Entity Name), depending on whether the licensee is an individual or an entity, respectively.

You may enter a post office box number in Item 4 or a street address in Item 5, or enter information for both items.

➢ Contact Information

Items 12-21 These items identify the contact representative, if different from the licensee/antenna structure owner. This is usually the headquarters office of a large company, the law firm or other representative of the licensee/antenna structure owner, or the person or company that prepared or submitted the application on behalf of the licensee/antenna structure owner. If there is a question about the application, an FCC representative will communicate with the licensee’s contact representative.

If this section is used, a name (Item 12) and telephone number (Item 19) are required at a minimum. If the address items are completed, you may enter a post office box number in Item 14 or a street address in Item 15, or enter information for both items.

➢ Associated Valid Call Signs or Antenna Structure Registration Numbers

Item 22 Licensees should list all valid Wireless Telecommunications call signs associated with the Taxpayer Identification Number and Sub-Group Identification Number (if used) entered in Items 1a and 1b.

Item 23 Antenna Structure owners should list all valid antenna structure registration numbers associated with the Taxpayer Identification Number and Sub-Group Identification Number (if used) entered in Items 1a and 1b.
